

Dear Parents,

This class has such outstanding readers. I have never had a class as a whole do so well on a Unit Test. They are amazing. I am noticing how the progress with the children and their ability to be attentive during instruction for longer periods of time. They are working harder to apply what they have learned. They deserve a nice little Thanksgiving vacation!

Next week is an extremely short week. Monday and Tuesday are half days and the remainder of the week they are yours to enjoy! We will present our Thanksgiving play to KB, 1B, 3B and 4B on Tuesday morning. If there is a sibling in one of the "A" classrooms Mrs. Green and I will make sure brothers and sisters get to see each other.

Also, on Tuesday morning we will share a Friendship Fruit Salad and muffins. The children will wear their costumes from the play and feast together. Please see the note in the Red Folder with details about the Friendship Salad.

During Religion class we began discussing the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I believe so strongly in this sacrament that I find it quite rewarding preparing children for their First Reconciliation. After Thanksgiving we will begin learning the Act of Contrition prayer. Please help your child at home. The 2B website has helpful information for the sacrament. Check it out!

Have a peaceful weekend! Peace to you!

Amy Erb
